

Terms and Conditions and Cancellation Policy

Go2Italy welcomes you to the travel experience of a lifetime. To better serve you and clarify the terms and conditions and our cancellation policy we have prepared the following statement in written format: Your reservation or participation in any tours offered by Go2Italy constitutes a contractual agreement between you (the client) and Go2Italy. We strive to make every tour a great experience with memories that last a lifetime.

- A $500.00 non-refundable deposit is required at the time of booking per person.
- Balance due is required no later than 90 days from scheduled departure.
- Prices shown are per person and based on double occupancy.
- Single occupancy will be $1200.
- Prices shown are based on cash payment, not credit card.
- Itineraries are subject to change without notice. A written notice will be provided.
- The pricing of our tours is based in US dollars and subject to change at any time provided it occurs prior to making your full payment.
- Any cancellation by you, the client, shall be made in writing.
- Deposits are NOT REFUNDABLE for any reason, unless made within 3 business days in writing.
- Should the client fail to make the final payment of the outstanding balance within the 90 days of departure it shall result in the cancellation of your reservation and deposits will be forfeited.
- OPTIONAL TOURS, if any are offered, must be paid prior to departure.
- Should Go2Italy cancel the tour, a written explanation will be issued, and a full refund shall be issued.
- Your reservation is confirmed when your initial deposit is received.
- 8% Taxes are not included in the pricing of the tour. The tourist tax, road tax, city entry tax, hotel taxes and airfare taxes will be covered by Go2Italy.

Unless specified in your itinerary, the following is not included in your reservation:

- Excessive baggage weight
- Incidental charges
- Optional tours
- Travel insurance
- Airport parking